VOL. III. No. 3.

HARTFORD, CONN., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1906.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

DEATH OF REV. JOHN H. McCrackan, 1882.

'82—Rev. John Henry McCrackan, rector of the (American) Church of the Ascension in Munich, Bavaria, died in that city on Saturday in the 51st year of his age. His father was of a New Haven family, and his mother, who was Miss Sanford, married for her second husband, the late Melvin B. Copeland of Middletown. The son's early education was partly in England, where he studied under Derwent Coleridge, son of the poet, and was graduated at Trinity College with the honors of the salutatory in 1882, and at the Berkeley Divinity School in 1885. He began his clerical duties in this city as assistant minister at Christ Church, of which Bishop Nichols of California was at that time rector, and was for one term instructor in Latin at Trinity College. After traveling in Europe, he accepted a position in St. Margaret's School, Waterbury, and was also assistant in St. John's parish in that city. From 1894 to 1899 he was engaged in parochial work in San Bernadino and Sierra Madre, Cal. Since that time he has officiated in different places on the continent of Europe, including the chaplaincy at Lucerne in Switzerland and the Church of St. Paul's within the walls at Rome. About three years ago he took charge of the congregation of the American Episcopal Church at Munich, which under his care was organized into a parish of which he became the rector.

Mr. McCrackan was a scholarly man, gentle and pleasing in his ways, who made many friends and exerted a quiet but strong influence. His wife, whose father is Rev. Samuel R. Bailey now of Baltimore, survives him, with one daughter. A brother, William D. McCrackan, well known as a historical student, was a graduate of Trinity College in the class of 1885, and two brothers-in-law, Rev. Melville K. Bailey and Lawson Purdy, were graduated in 1879 and 1884 respectively.

The following is a copy of an article in a recent newspaper:

"PEOPLE GIVE LOT FOR AMERICAN CLERGYMAN'S GRAVE."

"Oberammergau, Upper Bavaria, July 24.—The burgomaster and citizens of Oberammergau have presented a plot of ground on the mountain side near the cross of King Ludwig II for the grave of the Rev. John H. McCrackan, rector for many years of the American church at Munich, where he died on Saturday last. The burial will take place to-morrow."

'78—The Rev. Charles N. Boylston and Mrs. Boylston celebrated their silver wedding on the 4th of October.

'94—The law office of Charles F. Weed and Arthur H. Weed '02, is at 905-906 Exchange building, 53 State street, Boston, Mass.

DEATH OF REV. GEORGE D. JOHNSON.

Rev. George Dowdall Johnson '54, D.D., who died at his home in New Brighton, Staten Island, August 28th, in his 73d year, was a graduate of Trinity College and valedictorian of the famous class of 1854. Among his classmates were Bishop Scarborough of New Jersey, John Flavel Mines (perhaps better known as "Felix Oldboy"), John Gardner White of Cambridge, William J. Boardman of Washington, and Rev. Drs. Rufus Emery, William A. Hitchcock, Horace B. Hitchings and Cornelius B. Smith. After finishing his college course, Mr. Johnson was for three years master in Mr. Everett's Rectory School at Hamden, and then entered the Berkeley Divinity School, from which he was graduated in 1860, and was ordained by Bishop Williams. His first parish was that of St. Luke's Church, Darien, after which he was successively at Owego, N. Y., St. Mark's Church, Boston, and Newburyport, Mass., and in 1875 he became rector of Christ Church, New Brighton, in addition to which he was appointed in 1888 archdeacon of Richmond county. Some four years ago he retired from active work and became rector emeritus. In 1891 St. Stephen's College gave him the degree of doctor of divinity.

Dr. Johnson was of distinguished ancestry, being in the line of direct descent from Rev. Dr. Samuel Johnson of Guilford, Stratford, and King's (now Columbia) College, the founder of Episcopacy in Connecticut, and his no less distinguished son, Dr. William Samuel Johnson, jurist and senator; he was also descended from the eminent Rev. Dr. Jonathan Edwards, president of the College of New Jersey. At the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the settlement of Guilford, Dr. Johnson preached a memorial sermon in Christ Church in that town. Two years ago, on the semi-centennial of his class, he was present at the commencement of Trinity College. A brother, Samuel William Johnson, who was a member of the class of 1858, died in 1882. Professor Charles Frederick Johnson is a kinsman.

FOOTBALL.

West Point Game To-Morrow.

The football team left this afternoon for West Point. To-morrow Trinity and the army will meet on the gridiron. The members of the Trinity eleven have been training but a short time and have not had very much practice in the game as it is played this year under the new rules. But everyone feels that Trinity will make a creditable showing against West Point to-morrow. There is the utmost of confidence in Coach Landefeld and Captain Dougherty, and it is the consensus of opinion that Trinity will be represented by the strongest football team that has worn the Old Gold and Blue for many years.

The squad is larger this season than it has been for several seasons. About thirty-five men have been reporting daily for practice. When one stops to consider what a remarkably large percentage of the entire number of men in college are trying for the 'varsity, the great amount of spirit and enthusiasm that is being manifested in the sport is easily seen. Every player is working very hard and there is keen competition for the various positions.

The following men went to West Point: Dr. Swan, Coach Landefeld, Manager Bryant, Captain Dougherty '07, G. Cunningham '07, Off '07, Donnelly '08, Buck '08, Collins '08, Budd '08, Pond '08, Taylor '08, Maxson '09, Mason '09, Rich '09, Carpenter '09, Buck '09, Neff '10, Henshaw '10.

THE JUNIOR PROMENADE.

At a meeting of the Junior class held yesterday afternoon, Charles Lamb Trumbull of Chicago was elected chairman of the Junior Promenade Committee and William Rich Cross of Auburn was elected secretary and treasurer.

Both men are prominent members of the Junior class. Chairman Trumbull was class president of his class Trinity term and freshman year, is a member of the German Club, and assistant manager of the football team. He is a member of the Psi Upsilon fraternity. Cross is one of the managing editors of the "Tripod," is a member of the German Club, and manager of the baseball team. He is a member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity.

This year it is hoped to make the "prom" the greatest success of its kind ever given at Trinity. The remainder of the committee will be appointed during the week.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Missionary Society will meet next Monday in the Latin Room for the election of the new members. It is very important that every member should be present as the society must be re-established on a new foundation.

'89—Married, in Ashbourne, Pa., July 14th, Frederick Fitz-Gerald and Miss Mabel Chase Clendenning.

THE GERMAN CLUB.

The German Club held its first meeting of the year at 81 Vernon street, Tuesday afternoon. The club is in a most prosperous condition at the opening of the college year. The policy of the club was discussed at length but no important business was transacted. Eight new men will be taken into the club and the first German will probably be held in Alumni Hall during the early part of November.

The undergraduate executive committee of the German Club met at 81 Vernon street last night, and decided upon much of importance. This year the program will be radically different from that of last year. Many new men will be admitted. It is said that the financial position of the club is excellent. Next Tuesday night the executive committee will meet the alumni advisory committee to act upon the reforms discussed at the meeting of the executive committee last night. The members of the alumni advisory committee are: George Ellis '92, E. S. Allen '94, Cranston Brenton '97, J. McA. Johnson '03. The members of the undergraduate executive committee are: President, Vaughn Ferguson '07; Sec'y-Treas., William J. Hamersley '09; Percy Carl Bryant '07, Paul M. Butterworth '08. Those desiring to join the German Club will please hand in their names to the secretary.

Thomas McBride Steele '02, and Harvard Law School '05, who is now practicing law in New Haven, was a recent visitor at college.

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

Some comment has been made on the "Tripod's" failure to have a list of the names and the homes of the men entering this year. In defense of ourselves we desire to say that this omission was intentional. College began on Thursday, a week ago yesterday, and our first issue came on the following day. At the time of sending the paper to print the results of a greater portion of the examinations for admittance were unknown and the "Tripod" preferred to print no list at all than to print one which would be erroneous and would necessitate the printing of a correct list later.

The "Tripod" is glad to see that it is obtaining the interest of the alumni and undergraduates. Criticism, even if adverse, betokens a lively interest, and every Trinity man should feel himself bound to criticize anything which he feels is wrong about the "Tripod," for it is by criticism that we improve.

To the "Tripod" it seems that football practice is receiving more loyal support and more genuine interest this fall than it has for several years. This is an awakening of the good old

Trinity spirit—let us keep it up. There is no good reason why a greater proportion of the college body should not be down on the football field every afternoon to give the team encouragement. Senator Wilcox, '80, was most certainly correct in his statement, read in Alumni Hall last Friday night, that the man, on the bleachers yelling support, was of almost as great value as the man on the team. Let us all prove ourselves valuable men to the college

Trinity Alumni and Undergraduates: It is fitting that the "Tripod," here at the beginning of the year should show you a little of the situation it faces. In the first place to live the "Tripod" must have the support of every undergraduate and every alumnus who is interested in the welfare of the college. A semi-weekly, you must know, is an expensive thing to run and the two preceding years of the "Tripod's" life have been expended, by the board of editors, in a vain endeavor to make the paper pay for itself. This year it must pay expenses or drop out of existence, for it will be evident that Trinity and Trinity men can not support such a paper. The "Tripod" is doing good work and to have it go, we feel, would be a calamity.

Please, for the sake of the good old college, whose sons we all are, give us your support.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company. In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends. In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.
